There's an abundance of things to do and see in Devon

On offer are rugged cliffs, white pebble beaches, stretches of golden sands, quaint fishing ports, hidden wooded estuaries and the Jurassic Coast – England's first natural World Heritage Site. The choice along Devon's dual coastlines is varied and fun, offering something for enthusiasts and beginners of all ages. You can enjoy everything from sailing, surfing and canoeing – to boat trips, fishing and diving. Or you can try some fishing, riding or simply walking the miles of way-marked footpaths and bridleways to discover welcoming country pubs, specialist shops and lively farmers' markets.

But that's not all this exciting county has to offer. Devon is also rich in history and heritage. You can step back in time and explore historic cities or discover seafaring characters like Drake and Raleigh or the settings for novels by Agatha Christie and Conan Doyle. The county also abounds with ancient cathedrals and churches as well as historic houses and industrial sites that all have their own tale to tell. With such a rich heritage it's not surprising that there is an abundance of heritage centres, events, exhibitions and attractions bringing to life Devon's long and diverse history, such as at Morwellham Quay near Tavistock or Coldharbour Mill near Cullompton.
